The will of the late John McColgan was yesterday filed in the clerk's office of the Supreme Court, together with a petition for probate by James F. Morgan, the executor and trustee named in the will.

The HAWAHAN GAZETTE is published to-day. It contains a complete resume of the past week's local news and also news from the other islands. Copies can be obtained at the bookstores and this office.

It is just what might have been expected, the Bulletin is unable to prove ts statement made a few days ago, that about a quarter of a mile of the Punchbowl road had been washed away. In last evening's issue it offers an apology.

By special request the Hawaiian band will not play at Thomas Square Wednes-day, but will play there Thursday evening. It plays at the Hawaiian Hotel Wednesday evening, and Friday evening at the Hamilton house at the dinner given by the Chief Justice to the bar.

Mr. J. A. Hassinger has arranged with the contractor to have the wainscoating completed in the lobbies of the Supreme Court where the Hawaiian reports are stored. The four bookcases containing them are being moved to allow Mr. Rupprecht, the painter, to do the finishing touches back of these cases. The books had to be taken out to move these cases.

Writ of Mandamus.

The Minister of Interior has filed a petition in the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus against George J. Ross, Auditor-General. The petition alleges that the Auditor-General refuses to audit certain bills presented to him for salaries of guards of prisoners at Hilo and Puna incurred during the month of January, 1890, he claiming that such bills should be charged to the specific appropriation The steamer Kaala went on the Marine for public work upon which the persons concerning whom such bills have been incurred are at the time being engaged The writ was issued by Mr. Justice McCully, made returnable yesterday, but the matter has been postponed to Wednesday, March 7.

in Marriage-A Nice Affair. The marriage of Capt. Richard Dabel and Miss Abby Harrison took place of Capt. J. H. Harrison an old and resand has a large circle of friends. The bridegroom is well known in the community as the popular commander of the Hawaiian bark W. B. Godfrey. Pre-Steam Navigation Company.

The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, King street.

The grounds were illuminated with the interior of the house were scattered pretty bouquets of flowers, and the atmosphere was laden with the fragrance of the choice flowers. The floor of one room was canvassed and appropriately decorated with palm leaves and flowers. The ceremony was performed in the front parlor by the Rev. E. G. Beckwith, D.D., pastor of Central Union church, the happy couple standing underneath a handsome floral marriage bell. The bridesmaid was Miss Phoebe Taylor of Lahaina, and the best man, Mr. Rich'd N. Webster. Miss Phoebe Harrison and Master Henry Harrison, sister and brother of the bride, occupied positions on either side of the bridal party. The Island Produce. bride was given away by her father. She was attired in a pretty costume of white corded silk with train, the usual veil and wreaths of orange blossoms. Congratulations followed, there being quite a large number of invited guests present, after which dancing was indulged in to the strains of a detachment of the Hawaiian band. A very fine supper was served about 9:30 o'clock, the caterers In our "By Authority" column tenders being Hart & Co. of the Elite Parlors. Captain and Mrs. Harrison made every one feel quite at home, and Mr. Robert More also took an active part in attending to the comfort of those present. The presents were displayed in a room off the parlor and embraced some very pretty and costly articles of silverware, glassware, etc. The officers and crew of the bark W. B. Godfrey remembered just fun to watch and see those two old

The fashionable mode of thieving in the metropolis, says a London paper, at present is to impersonate an inspector, and insist upon examining the drains, water-pipes, overhead wires, gas-piping or anything else that may occur to the ingenious imagination of the thief. As soon as they enter the house they contrive to appropriate any portable valuables that lie in their way.
